A. B. STITH, Agent & Commissission Merchant, and

DRY GOODS & GROCERY BROKER, No. 80 Breadway, New Yorks B. STITH, tenders his services to the Mer-A ochants, Planters, and Citizens of North Carolina, and to Southern Merchants generally, as Agent, Commission Merchant, and Dry Goods and Grocery Broker, in the City of New-York; and will attend to any business in his line-either in

$ 650 THE SALE OF PRODUCE OR MERCHANDISE, OR THE PURCHASE OF 1000 Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Crockery, Shoes, Hats. Furniture, Carriages, Medical and Agricultural Instruments, Bagging, Rope, Drugs, Medicines, &c &c. He flatters himself, as a purchaser of Goods for South-ern Trade, his experience—having been engaged for the last sixteen years in the retail trade in the middle and lower part of North Carolina and in the city of Raleigh -will enable him to give entire satisfaction to the Merchants who may entrust to him their orders. Uncon-nected with any establishment in New-York, and devoting his whole time to acquaint himself with the val-ue of Goods of every description, attending the auction sales, and being present to improve every opportunity to benefit his customers, he can save more than his commissions to the Merchant, and the inconveniences and expense of a trip to New York. The fact that Goods are constantly varying in prices and styles, and always decline as the season advances, is known to all in the habit of buying Goods in New York. A great advantage will therefore be afforded to all Southern Merchants in having a competent agent, whose interest it will be to avail himself of every opportunity for their benefit, and who can, through him, keep 0 up their stocks by getting goods as their business may require, and avoid the necessity of laying in at one time 280 a heavy stock for the season; and the inconveniencies of a large amount of bills falling due about the same 280 time. He can also get his goods more frequently, and of later and more desirable styles, and at lower rates, and thereby keep up a constant excitement and attraction. Merchants, and other persons, disposed to employ him, will please to lorward with their orders their references, or the names of firms with whom they usually deal in New York, and in all instances he will give them the preference, unless he can fill their orders on better terms elsewhere. He asks but one trial of his 225 taste and judgment to insure future orders. His com-Drawings of the above numbers can be seen at the missions will be two and a hall per cent. Address A.
